

How Can My Favourite School Subject Help

Climate and Nature?

Want to do a job that helps the planet?

English

Be a journalist reporting on climate disasters and get people talking about climate change

Maths

Form models of the climate and natural systems so people can choose the most effective climate actions

Chemistry

Develop better solar panels, wind turbines, batteries, and pollution filters

Languages

Translate books about climate change and interpret at events such as COP to raise global awareness

Art

Illustrate books or animations about climate change that help people empathise with the planet

Computing

Code quest video games that help people understand the climate and biodiversity crisis and what actions they can do

History

Be a politician and use knowledge of colonialism and non-consumerist relationships to nature to shape policies that forward climate action and protect nature and indigenous groups

Physics

Be a renewable energy engineer or building physicist and collect data on how to make our buildings more efficient

Religious Studies

Be a lawyer for environmental justice

Geography

Be an urban planner and explore how cities could be made better for us and the planet through the use of design and technology

Psychology

Help people overcome and empower themselves through climate anxiety

Music

Write protest music and scores that comforts and empowers eco-warriors

Want to join TEACH THE FUTURE advocating for better climate education?

